

Contents – Matières – Inhalt – Contenido

Editorial

LEENA KÄOSAAR – 207

The Possible Wor(l)ds of Healing: Poetics and Politics of Repair

YULIA KURNYSHOVA, ANDREY MAKARYCHEV – 217

Fake Healing and Popular Biopolitics: Pro-Russian Narratives in Occupied Mariupol

IRYNA KOVAL-FUCHYLO – 239

Why I Record Interviews with Ukrainian Refugees:
An Attempt at Autoethnography

PAUL LONGLEY ARTHUR – 254

Paper Life: Nadia Olijnyk's Notebooks

MARYAM ADJAM – 271

The Poetics of Postmemory: The Afterlife of Memory
in the Wake of War and Flight

GIEDRĖ ŠMITIENĖ – 290

"I'm not one of those strong people": Traumatic Experiences
in Gulag Letters

MARTIN NÖMM – 313

Acceptance, Healing and Reflective Nostalgia in the Works of Elin Toona and Agate Nesaule

GABRIELLA GRACEFFO – 335

Somatic Syntax: Ban en Banlieue, Filmic Prose, and the Representation of Trauma

MARIANNE LIND – 352

Poetics of Trauma in Olga Ravn's My Work:
Towards Matricentric Writing

REBEKKA LOTMAN – 371

Estonian Elegy: Forms of Mourning in Contemporary Poetry

Miscellanea

JON MATHIEU – 395

Formal Analysis in Research on Small/Minor Literatures:
Two Cases Compared

HELEN ROOSTMA – 406

Thresholds to Infinity: Towards a Typology of Haunted House Narratives

VIKTORIJA ŠEINA, AISTĖ KUČINSKIENĖ – 423

The Lithuanian High School Literary Canon: Reconstructing
the Developments of a Century

ABDELOUAHED HAJJI – 439

Kaléidoscope de la lecture dans Par Dieu, cette histoire est mon histoire !
de Abdelfattah Kilito

About the Authors – 454