

CONTEMPORARY RITUAL LANDSCAPES

PREFACE TO THE SPECIAL ISSUE

The papers of this special issue of the Journal of Ethnology and Folkloristics were presented at the Ethnography of Contemporary Ritual Landscapes panel organised at the Conference of the Finnish Anthropological Society at the University of Helsinki, October 21–22, 2015. The theme of the conference was Landscapes, Sociality and Materiality. The conveners of the panel were Pirjo Kristiina Virtanen and Eleonora Lundell, with discussant Marja-Liisa Honkasalo. The aim of the panel was to examine how rituals organise the production and perception of landscape and how landscape produces ritual.

We would also like to thank the organisers of the Landscapes, Sociality and Materiality conference in Helsinki, especially Anu Lounela and Katja Uusihakala. We are grateful to the editors of JEF to their final editorial work, to chief editor Ergo-Hart Västriik, and to the reviewers of the manuscripts for their valuable comments. In addition we would like to thank the University of Helsinki and the Academy of Finland for funding that contributed to our research.
